We Need Your Help!

We need your help at the 2017 Farm Show, January 7-14. Volunteers are needed to help at the Honey Booth, located in the Food Court, the Honey Stand, located in the Marketplace along with the Learning Center, located in the Large Exhibit Hall. If you could give a half-day or more it would be appreciated.

Interested in working in the Food Court at the PSBA Honey Booth where waffles and honey ice cream are sold? Contact Stu Mathias at 717-533-2231.

Stu Mathias and Aaron Fisher are looking for beekeepers willing to donate or sell honey and/or honey products that will be available for sale at the Honey Stand and the Honey Booth. Please contact Stu Mathias at 717-533-2231 or Aaron Fisher at 717-242-4373, email aaron@fisherbeefarm.com. We only sell Pennsylvania honey and honey products.

If you are interested in volunteering your time at the Honey Stand, located in the Marketplace, please contact Tom Jones at 717-243-0356.

Sign up to share your knowledge of the honey bee with the public at the Farm Show. We have located front and center this year, side by side with the butter sculpture in the middle of the large exhibit hall. Again this year, an atrium is being included in the apiary exhibit. People are excited and eager to learn about the trials and tribulations of this efficient pollinator and you can be a part of this by simply volunteering a few hours of your time. Contact Stan Poleshuk at 717-433-2830, email: spoleshuk285@comcast.net to volunteer.

Proceeds from the sales at the Honey Booth and Honey Stand goes back to the PSBA Promotional Fund and is used for the PA Honey Queen program and the promotion of honey throughout the state.

Sign up sheets for the Honey Booth, Honey Stand & Large Exhibit Hall will be located on the registration desk at the annual conference.

Don’t forget to show off this year’s honey harvest by participating in the Farm Show Apiary Products

The Waggle is not intended to be used for editorials, but rather specific activities or information that may be of interest or value to PSBA membership.
