

Application to participate in:

USDA SARE Grant 2018- Comparing Purdue Leg-chewer queens to a control queen.

FNE18-886-“PA Queen Bee Improvement Project- field test for Mite-biting Behavior using Backyard Scientists”

1. Beekeeper name:
2. Phone:
3. Email:
4. Apiary address:

5. Years of beekeeping experience:
6. What is your PA State Apiary Registration Number:
7. What beekeeping organizations do you belong to:
8. Do you monitor for varroa mites? Yes or No
9. If you monitor mites, what method?
10. What mite management/control methods do you use?
11. Do you have improved genetic queens from other sources? If yes, what do you have?

12. What are your reasons for participating and obtaining Purdue “leg chewer” queens?

13. How many colonies do you currently have?
14. Would you want to have more than one set of queens? And cost share for additional sets?

Any comment or questions?

Additional question can be forwarded to:

Jeff Berta

Always Summer Herbs.com, LLC

Grant administrator for USDA SARE FNE18-886

724.735.4700

jeffberta@centurylink.net